

BADGER PRIDE WEAR

Bothwell School is launching an online Badgers Merchandise Shop!

Our school has partnered with Entripy.com to create an online store that will have merchandise available for purchase all year long. The store is now open and orders can be done anytime 24/7.

Go to this link bothwellschool.entripyshops.com and browse the clothing and accessories that are available. The link will also be on our website so you can access it easily from there.

You may customize your order with our school logo choices, and adding your name/number is an available option too. There are a variety of brands and styles available. Play around with it and create the look you want!

Items are shipped right to your house or box number, just like any other online purchases. There are often purchases that qualify for free shipping after a certain amount. Items are usually arriving between 2-3 weeks of purchase. Pay by credit card right on the site and the order goes direct to Entripy. Bothwell School does not take responsibility for any incorrect orders, but the Entripy company will be happy to help you with ordering questions. Mr. Giesbrecht will help with questions at the school level if needed.

Entripy has shared a $10 discount code for you to start to shop for the Bothwell School BADGER pride wear!

This $10 discount expires on February 29th- use BOTHS10 to receive a $10 discount on all orders over $40 before tax! Each student will be receiving a bag to take home that has the coupon code in it.

We look forward to seeing Bothwell School BADGER pride wear in the school soon.
